Volume 1

'Fairy Visits The Dentist'

by Mildred Mittens

Fairy is a very special little piggy. She was born blind and deaf but has an exciting life; going on lots of adventures and always having fun. She is exceptionally fond of her food, lives life to the full and touches all who meet her with true Fairy Magic. Today, Fairy is going to see The Dentist!

Eek! I don't like the look of all this nasty dentist type stuff. What is going to happen to me?

Are you there, Mr Bear? I am frightened.

It's okay little Fairy, you were just having a nasty nightmare . . .

You have an appointment with Dr Lisa. She is kind and gentle and will take good care of you and that naughty tooth.

Oh that's all right then!
I'd better eat my breakfast.

Time to clean my teeth thoroughly!

This flossy stuff gets everywhere!

Is it ok if Marigold comes too, Mummy?
She can hold my paw.

Are we nearly there yet?

Crikey, Daddy, mind those trees!

You'd think there would be a copy of 'Fairy's Tales' in the Waiting Room, wouldn't you?

I am a bit wrapped up now, can you come back later? I feel all cosy and safe though.

Oh my! Look at that naughty tooth. Fairy's front tooth grows at an unusual angle which mean regular trips to the dentist.

Look! All done!

'Well done', says Dr Lisa,
'You were such a good girl. Gimme - 8!'

A special Fairy treat for being so good - an afternoon snack at a posh Tea Shop.

Faster Daddy!
Are we nearly home yet?

'I am so proud of you Fairy. You were very brave', says Mr Bear.

I am going to brush my teeth regularly every night now, before I go . . .

.... to bed! Good-night ... zzzzzzz

Dedicated to 'The Fairy Followers' on The Guinea Lynx Forum
and to Guinea Pigs everywhere, past and present, who have spread a little Piggy Magic.

Thank you Fairy, Marigold, Lisa, Daddy (driver) and Mummy (cameraman)
