Fairy's Tales

Filled with Fairy Magic!

Fairy's First Christmas

by Mildred Mittens

Fairy is a very special little piggy.
She was born blind and deaf but has an immense zest for life
and enjoys spreading Fairy Magic wherever she goes.

Welcome to her world.

'Fairy, it will soon be Christmas Day. A very special time to spread Peace, Joy and Goodwill to piggies all over the world,' announces Mr Bear.

'But first you need to visit Santa and tell him all the lovely presents you would like him to bring you and share any other special wishes you have'.

Back home, preparations for the big day are well under way. 'Will you help decorate the Christmas Tree Fairy?' asks Mr Bear.

'Don't worry. I've brought this fairy for the very top of the tree!' joked Mr Bear. 'Now then, let's start the food.'

We will bake some tasty cakes to share with all our friends when they visit us over Christmas.

'There is more to this baking than meets the eye!' says our little Fairy cake. Time to wrap the presents.

I'm wrapping-up lots of yummy things to give to my friends. Mr Bear says, 'It is even better to give than receive.'

I'm all tied-up at the moment!
I never have managed to master this stringy stuff. Now, where is Santa?

Brrrrrrrr – it looks so cold and wintry. I hope Santa manages to struggle through all this snow.

Let's sit here indoors, where it's nice and cosy and warm, and watch out for him. Soon be time for bed.

Just time to make a special Christmas Fairy wish.

I can't sleep. I'm too excited!
I am going to try and keep one eye open for Santa . . . zzzzZZ

Yippee - it's Christmas morning, and time for me and my piggy friends to open our presents.

Woo hoo - lots of exciting parcels.
What shall I open first?

Look what I got from Mummy and Daddy!
So that's how they do it!

This is for you, Mr Bear.
I chose it myself and wrapped
it up - all on my own!

'Are you sure your new scarf isn't too tight Mr Bear?'
'It's lovely – just right! Now wrap up Fairy!'

Are all these presents for me?
What can I open next?

Wow - a brand new snuggle blanket. BRILLIANT!

No time to try it now.
I'm feeling a bit peckish.
It must be time for . . .

. . . Christmas Lunch! Look, all those yummy cakes I baked are for you, Mr Bear. Nomm . . .

nomm, nomm, nomm, burp!
Oops! Pardon.
nomm, nomm, nomm nomm.

That was a tasty starter - what's for main course?

It's traditional to play party games after Christmas Lunch – anyone for Tennis?

Hide and Seek next.
Where are those pesky piggies hiding?

Found you Marigold!
Let's play a game of Charades.
It's a song, 3 words, first word . . .

. . . it's 'Climb Every Mountain'!
It wasn't that difficult!!!

Come on Mr Bear, I can't resist all that lovely white snow!
Lets build a Snowman!
Mmmm, it tastes nice!

Wooooo, hold on tight Fairy!

What a wonderful Christmas Day.
Mr Bear was right - there were lots of presents for everyone, and it was even nicer to give than receive.

I have had a lovely first Christmas, Mr Bear. Thank you for making it so special. I hope all the piggies around the world had a happy Christmas too! I'm going to test my snuggle blanket right now. Good night and sweet dreams.

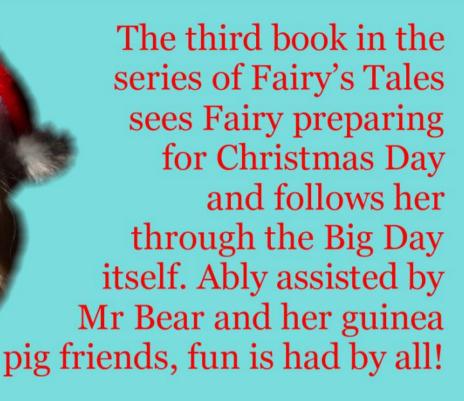

zzzzZZZ

Dedicated to 'Fairy Followers' everywhere, and to Fairy's Daddy - who collects the best grass. Thank you too to Mariella, Marigold and Matilda – you are my stars!

The third book in the series of Fairy's Tales sees Fairy preparing for Christmas Day and follows her through the Big Day itself. Ably assisted by Mr Bear and her guinea pig friends, fun is had by all!

Read what our Fan's say about previous 'Fairy's Tales'.

Caspersmom: Mildred! LOVE the new book.

Fourboysfornow: The newest Fairy story is so gorgeous as usual.

AM1: Fairy is adorable. She makes me happy.

Bookfan: Thank you Mildred, for the new story. It was fairy-wondeful!

BreendaB: OMG! That was way too cute!

TexCavy: It was awesome to see and read.

Tammy: She's the most adorable little piggie ever =)

LynnK: Thanks Mildred that was so wonderful.

Dgarriques: I love the Fairy tales.

Malilla: She is becoming really famous!

Hunybee: Oh my goodness! That is adorable!

Sylvia: It's BRILLIANT! Fairy is a real star. And Teddy too!

www.themildredmittensmanufactory.co.uk

0 075678 164125